Class Contract for English Language Learners

This contract outlines the expectations and responsibilities for both students and teachers in this English language learning class. Our goal is to create a positive, respectful, and effective learning environment. By signing this contract, you agree to abide by these guidelines.

For Students:

1. Attendance:

Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes on time. If you need to miss a class, please inform the teacher in advance. Excessive absences or tardiness may affect your progress.

2. Participation:

Active participation is crucial for language learning. Students are encouraged to speak, ask questions, and engage in discussions.

3. Homework and Assignments:

Homework is an essential part of language practice. All assignments should be completed on time. If you have any difficulties, discuss them with the teacher.

4. Respect and Conduct:

Students are expected to show respect for their classmates and teacher. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. This includes maintaining respectful language and being considerate of others' learning needs.

5. Use of English:

Whenever possible, students should use English during class. This will help you improve faster and build confidence.

6. Technology:

Ensure that your device is functioning properly and that you have a stable internet connection. Avoid distractions like phone use or multitasking during lessons.

Martin Sketchley
ELT Experiences © 2024

For Teachers:

1. Punctuality:

Teachers are expected to start and end classes on time. In case of any delay or cancellation, students should be notified in advance.

2. Preparation:

Teachers must prepare engaging, relevant, and level-appropriate materials. Lessons should be well-structured and meet the language needs of the students.

3. Feedback:

Teachers should provide constructive feedback on students' progress, addressing both strengths and areas for improvement.

4. Encouragement:

Teachers should create a supportive environment where students feel confident to express themselves, ask questions, and make mistakes as part of their learning process.

5. Communication:

Teachers are expected to maintain clear communication with students regarding class expectations, homework, and any scheduling changes.

6. Professionalism:

Teachers should behave professionally at all times and treat all students equally and respectfully.

Conclusion:

By signing this contract, both students and teachers acknowledge that they understand and agree to abide by the terms listed above. This will help create an effective and respectful learning environment for all.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Teacher Signature: _____ Date: _____

Martin Sketchley
ELT Experiences © 2024